

Directions to York Racecourse and emc York 2004

Approach York from the south on the outer A64 ring road and take the A1036 into York, signposted for the Racecourse.

Follow the signs for York city centre and the Racecourse. As you head into York you will see a large expanse of grass on your right hand side. This is the Knavesmire and York Racecourse is on the far side.

Continue along the road, still heading for York city centre until you see a junction on your right with a house surrounded by a small white picket fence. Turn right here and drive along the magnificent avenue of trees, keeping the Knavesmire on your right and houses on your left.

As you round the corner at the end of the avenue, IGNORE the sign for the car park and instead turn 2nd right into the main Racecourse entrance. Keep going as far as the overpass with "Welcome to York Racecourse" emblazoned on it.

Park anywhere here and follow the signs for "emc York 2004 Conference & Exhibition" and/or signs to the Voltigeur Suite, on the 3rd floor of the Knavesmire Stand.

Please remember to register immediately opposite the lifts on the 3^d floor when you arrive and before entering the Conference or Exhibition area
